

(upper primary age)

Student 1

1- Exercise de Analysis: Hiroshima

2- Activity en la Web.

Name of source

- Name of the internet source? google
- Web address of the source?
http://news.bbc.co.uk/hi/spanish/international/newsid_4126000/4126304.stm
- Who is behind the source? (a newspaper, a television Station, ..) Un periodico.

Headline of article

- What is the headline of the article? Hiroshima:60años después de la bomba
- What is the article about? De que en Hiroshima arrojaron una bomba hace 60 años What is the main point?. la bomba atómica, el día 6 en el año 1945.
- Is there a justification given why the bomb has been dropped? If yes, what?
- Which countries are mentioned in the article? Japón y Estados Unidos.
- How are the countries portrayed? Que estaban perdiendo, la guerra cuando se lanzó la bomba
- What perspective, if any, are you aware of in your own country? No, porque mi país no aparece en este artículo

3- Additional options for going further.

..On the internet

- What information can you find when you search for `Hiroshima'? fotos ,enciclopedias,articulos de periodicos
- What images can you find with search using e.g. google imagenes? fotos sobre la bomba: monumentos totalmente derruidos, gente afectada, ciudades derruidas, monumento representativo de la paz, el hongo cuando estalló la bomba, imágenes de Hiroshima en la actualidad.

.. In newspapers (on 6th August

- In which section of the newspaper does the Hiroshima article appear? En internacional.
- How long is the article? What images are shown? Bastante largo. El domo de la paz en Hiroshima

.. In photographic books

- What images are shown?
- Which people are presented? What nationality are they? Example: Donald M. Goldstein et al, 1995: Rain of Ruin: Photographic illustration of the planning and execution of the Hiroshima bombing

.. In biographical books

- What kind of stories is based around the bombing? How do personal accounts differ from a more general documentation? Example: John Hersey, 1946: Hiroshima: personal accounts of how Hiroshima people experienced the bombing

.. In other printed material

- What information is there for example in magazines, school history books, or Encyclopaedi Esta en Japón , situada en la parte meridional dela isla de Honshu . Ciudad de mucho comercio, pero quedo destruida al caer la bomba atomica

.. In films=

- In which country was the film produced? What perspective was chosen? En qué país se produjo la película? Qué perspectiva se eligió?
- How are Japanese and American people portrayed? Who do you identify with? Cómo se caracteriza a los Japoneses y a los americanos? Con quién te identificas?
- How is the process of justification laid out in the film?
Example: Hiroshima docu-drama, 2002 prod~ by Hallmark Entertainment

Student 2

1- Ejercicio de Analysis: Hiroshima

2- Actividad en la Web.

Name of source

- Name of the internet source? google
- Web address of the source?
http://www.elpais.es/articulo/elpporcul/20050725elpepicul_1/Tes/Los%20%FAItimos%20d%EDas%20de%20la%20Segunda%20Guerra%20Mundial
- Who is behind the source? (a newspaper, a television Station,..) un periódico

Headline of article

- What is the headline of the article? los últimos días de la 2ª guerra mundial

Content of article

- What is the article about? De la 2ª guerra mundial
- What is the main point? El final de la 2ª guerra mundial y los episodios que la marcaron

Justification of the bombing

- Is there a justification given why the bomb has been dropped? If yes, what? No

National perspective

- Which countries are mentioned in the article? ninguno
- How are the countries portrayed? ninguno
- What perspective, if any, are you aware of in your own country? ninguna

3- Additional options for going further.

Explore the representation of the Hiroshima bombing in different source materials.

..On the internet

- What information can you find when you search for `Hiroshima'? la localización y la fundación de Hiroshima y fotos
- What images can you find with search using e.g. google image? un capitán de la fuerza aérea y un observador nuclear.
- .. In newspapers (on 6th August)=
- In which section of the newspaper does the Hiroshima article appear? Cultura

- How long is the article? What images are shown? Corto. De publicidad

- .. In photographic books

- What images are shown?
- Which people are presented? What nationality are they? Example: Donald M. Goldstein et al, 1995: Rain of Ruin: Photographic illustration of the planning and execution of the Hiroshima bombing

- .. In biographical books

- What kind of stories is based around the bombing? How do personal accounts differ from a more general documentation? Example: John Hersey, 1946: Hiroshima: personal accounts of how Hiroshima people experienced the bombing

- .. In other printed material

- What information is there for example in magazines, school history books, or enciclopedias? En Hiroshima los americanos tiraron una bomba nuclear que mató a mucha gente tras este suceso el emperador de Japón anunció su rendición.

- .. In films

- In which country was the film produced? What perspective was chosen? En Canadá
- How are Japanese and American people portrayed? Who do you identify with?
- How is the process of justification laid out in the film? Con ninguno
Example: Hiroshima docu-drama, 2002 prod~ by Hallmark una francesa y un japonés se enamoran pero son separados por la 2ª guerra mundial

Student 3

1- Ejercicio de Analysis: Hiroshima

2- Actividad en la Web.

Name of source

- Name of the internet source? google
- Web address of the source?
<http://salud.terra.cl/canales/internacionales/120/120203.html>
- Who is behind the source? (a newspaper, a television Station,) Un Canal Internacional de Internet

Headline of article

- What is the headline of the article? Hiroshima: a 60 años del horror

Content of article

- What is the article about? De la Bomba de Hiroshima
- What is the main point? El 6 de agosto de 1945 EE.UU. lanzó la bomba atómica sobre la ciudad japonesa de Hiroshima

Justification of the bombing

- Is there a justification given why the bomb has been dropped? If yes, what? No

National perspective

- Which countries are mentioned in the article? Nagasaki
- How are the countries portrayed?
- What perspective, if any, are you aware of in your own country? No

3- Additional options for going further.

..On the internet

- What information can you find when you search for 'Hiroshima'?
Articulos,Fotos,Peliculas etc
- What images can you find with search using e.g. google image? Monumentos destruidos, fotos sobre Hiroshima, gente hundida, manifestación, ciudades destruidas, mapas sobre Hiroshima etc

.. In newspapers (on 6th August

- In which section of the newspaper does the Hiroshima article appear?
Internacional

- How long is the article? What images are shown El Texto es muy grande y las imágenes son sobre la batalla de la bomba de Hiroshima.

- In photographic books

- What images are shown?

- Which people are presented? What nationality are they? Example: Donald M. Goldstein et al, 1995: Rain of Ruin: Photographic illustration of the planning and execution of the Hiroshima bombing

- .. In biographical books

- What kind of stories is based around the bombing? How do personal accounts differ from a more general documentation? Example: John Hersey, 1946: Hiroshima: personal accounts of how Hiroshima people experienced the bombing

- .. In other printed material

- What information is there for example in magazines, school history books, or Encyclopaedias?

Te da información sobre la situación de Hiroshima, su situación geográfica su población, sus actividades comerciales, sobre lo que ocurrió con la bomba atómica, también hay fotos sobre la misma

- In which country was the film produced? What perspective was chosen?
- How are Japanese and American people portrayed? Who do you identify with?
- How is the process of justification laid out in the film?
Example: Hiroshima docu-drama, 2002 prod~ by Hallmark Entertainment

Student 4

1- Ejercicio de Analysis: Hiroshima

2- Actividad en la Web.

Name of source

- Name of the internet source? google
- Web address of the source?
http://news.bbc.co.uk/hi/spanish/specials/newsid_4728000/4728007.stm
- Who is behind the source? (a newspaper, a television Station,) De un periódico

Headline of article

- What is the headline of the article? Hiroshima 06-08-45

Content of article

- What is the article about? De la bomba atómica que lanzaron en Hiroshima y en Nagasaki
- What is the main point? Cuenta lo que pasó, como lo pasaron los supervivientes.

Justification of the bombing

- Is there a justification given why the bomb has been dropped? If yes, what?

National perspective

- Which countries are mentioned in the article? Estados Unidos, Japón, Nagasaki, Hiroshima,
- How are the countries portrayed? Que en pocos segundos las dos ciudades quedaron devastadas.
- What perspective, if any, are you aware of in your own country? Ninguna

3- Additional options for going further.

Explore the representation of the Hiroshima bombing in different source materials.

..On the internet

- What information can you find when you search for 'Hiroshima'? Cuando fue fundada, que fue el escenario del primer bombardeo atómico de la historia
- What images can you find with search using e.g. google image? Como quedó todo después del bombardeo

.. In newspapers (on 6th August)

- In which section of the newspaper does the Hiroshima article appear
- How long is the article? What images are shown?

.. In photographic books

- What images are shown?
- Which people are presented? What nationality are they? Example: Donald M. Goldstein et al, 1995: Rain of Ruin: Photographic illustration of the planning and execution of the Hiroshima bombing

.. In biographical books

- What kind of stories is based around the bombing? How do personal accounts differ from a more general documentation? Example: John Hersey, 1946: Hiroshima: personal accounts of how Hiroshima people experienced the bombing

.. In other printed material

- What information is there for example in magazines, school history books, or Encyclopaedias?

.. In films

- In which country was the film produced? What perspective was chosen
- How are Japanese and American people portrayed? Who do you identify with? How is the process of justification laid out in the film? Example: Hiroshima docu-drama, 2002 prod~ by Hallmark

Student 5

1- Exercise de Analysis: Hiroshima

2- Activity en la Web.

Name of source

- Name of the internet source? Google
- Web address of the source ?www.dannen.com decision/
- Who is behind the source? (a newspaper, a television Station,..)Un periódico.

Headline of article

- What is the headline of the article? Puertas de la paz en Hiroshima.

Content of article

- What is the article about? Sobre la bomba en Hiroshima.
- What is the main point?Un monumento.

Justification of the bombing

- Is there a justification given why the bomb has been dropped? If yes, what? Porque los japoneses empezaron a molestar a los norteamericanos.

National perspective

- Which countries are mentioned in the article? Hiroshima , nagashaki
- How are the countries portrayed? Países que fueron bombardeados
- What perspective, if any, are you aware of in your own country? Ninguna

3- Additional options for going further.

..On the internet

- What information can you find when you search for `Hiroshima'? Un artículo sobre la política de Hiroshima respecto a los mapas.
- What images can you find with search using e.g. google image? Fotos de gente afectada, cómo fue la explosión, planos de Hiroshima etc...

.. In newspapers (on 6th August

- In which section of the newspaper does the Hiroshima article appear? Internacional.
- How long is the article? What images are shown? Media página

.. In photographic books

- What images are shown? Imágenes de la explosión, de la gente herida, de cómo quedó la ciudad etc.
- Which people are presented? What nationality are they? Example: Donald M. Goldstein et al, 1995: Rain of Ruin: Photographic illustration of the planning and execution of the Hiroshima bombing Gente Japonesa. Japoneses.

In biographical books

What kind of stories is based around the bombing? How do personal accounts differ from a more general documentation? Example: John Hersey, 1946: Hiroshima: personal accounts of how Hiroshima people experienced the bombing

In other printed material

- What information is there for example in magazines, school history books, or Encyclopaedias? Dónde está, cuantos habitantes tiene y cuando fue arrojada la bomba nuclear.

In films

- In which country was the film produced? What perspective was chosen? En América. Cuentan lo que realmente pasó y quienes lo cuentan.
- How are Japanese and American people portrayed? Who do you identify with? En la película caracterizan a los japoneses como buenos y a los americanos como malos. Me identifico con los Japoneses.
- Lay out in the film? Example: Hiroshima docu-drama, 2002 prod~ by Hallmark? Pues que había una guerra, y unos atacaban a otros, hasta que un día los americanos tiraron la bomba, entonces los japoneses se rindieron.

Student 6

1- Ejercicio de Analysis: Hiroshima

2- Actividad en la Web.

Name of source

- Name of the internet source? Google
- Web address of the source? <http://es.wikipedia.org>
- Who is behind the source? (a newspaper, a television Station, ..)
Ordenador(wikipedia)

Headline of article

- What is the headline of the article? Bombardeos sobre Hiroshima y Nagasaki

Content of article

- What is the article about? De cuando fueron lanzadas las bombas de Hiroshima y Nagasaki.
- What is the main point? Hiroshima y Nagasaki

Justification of the bombing

- Is there a justification given why the bomb has been dropped? If yes, what?
Porque los Japoneses atacaron Pearl Harbour

National perspective

- Which countries are mentioned in the article? Hiroshima y Nagasaki
- How are the countries portrayed? Países que sufrieron las tragedias de las primeras bombas nucleares
- What perspective, if any, are you aware of in your own country? No hay ninguna perspectiva

3- Additional options for going further.

Explore the representation of the Hiroshima bombing in different source materials.

..On the internet

- What information can you find when you search for `Hiroshima'? Un archivo sobre Hiroshima en el que muestra donde se encuentra además de otras muchas cosas.
- What images can you find with search using e.g. google image? Fotos de la explosión y de Hiroshima desde el cielo.

.. In newspapers (on 6th August)

- In which section of the newspaper does the Hiroshima article appear? en la sección internacional.
- How long is the article? What images are shown? Aprox. tres palmos .Salen imágenes de el único edificio que quedó en pie y el proceso de cómo se arrojó la bomba.

.. In photographic books

- What images are shown? Aparecen fotos de Hiroshima después de ser arrojada la bomba y de un parque en el que está el único edificio que quedó en pie.
- Which people are presented? What nationality are they? Example: Donald M. Goldstein et al, 1995: Rain of Ruin: Photographic illustration of the planning and execution of the Hiroshima bombing: No aparece ninguna persona.

.. In biographical books

- What kind of stories is based around the bombing? How do personal accounts differ from a more general documentation? Example: John Hersey, 1946: Hiroshima: personal accounts of how Hiroshima people experienced the bombing

Historias de las personas que han sufrido por culpa de las bombas y como las han vivido .Cuando las personas su propia historia no es lo mismo que cuentan en los libros porque ellos lo han vivido.

.. In other printed material

- What information is there for example in magazines, school history books, or Encyclopaedias? ..Donde esta situado , cuantos habitantes tiene y cuando fue arrojada la bomba nuclear
- In films
- In which country was the film produced? What perspective was chosen? En América, que los japoneses contarán lo que verdaderamente pasó.
- How are Japanese and American people portrayed? Who do you identify with? Que los Japoneses son los buenos y los americanos los malos .Con ninguno , por que en teoría los dos han hecho mal y lo podrían haber arreglado si no se hubieran echo mal los unos a los otros
- How is the process of justification laid out in the film? Example: Hiroshima docu-drama, 2002 prod~ by Hallmark No justifica nada.

Student 7

1- Ejercicio de Analysis: Hiroshima

2- Actividad en la Web.

Name of source

- Name of the internet source? Herald Sun
- Web address of the source? <http://www.dannen.com/decision/>
- Who is behind the source? (a newspaper, a television Station, ..) Un periódico en Internet

Headline of article

- What is the headline of the article? Puertas de la paz en Hiroshima

Content of article

- What is the article about? La paz en Hiroshima
- What is the main point? Monumentos que dedican a Hiroshima la paz en zonas del mundo

Justification of the bombing

- Is there a justification given why the bomb has been dropped? If yes, what? Porque los Japanese atacaron Pearl Harbour

National perspective

- Which countries are mentioned in the article? Hiroshima
- How are the countries portrayed? Países que sufrieron las tragedias de las primeras bombas nucleares
- What perspective, if any, are you aware of in your own country? No hay ninguna perspectiva

3- Additional options for going further.

Explore the representation of the Hiroshima bombing in different source materials.

..On the internet

- What information can you find when you search for `Hiroshima'? Es un archivo sobre Hiroshima, donde se encuentra además de otras muchas cosas
- What images can you find with search using e.g. google image?

.. In newspapers (on 6th August)

- In which section of the newspaper does the Hiroshima article appear?
- How long is the article? What images are shown?

.. In photographic books

- What images are shown?
- Which people are presented? What nationality are they? Example: Donald M. Goldstein et al, 1995: Rain of Ruin: Photographic illustration of the planning and execution of the Hiroshima bombing

.. In biographical books.

- What kind of stories is based around the bombing? How do personal accounts differ from a more general documentation? Example: John Hersey, 1946: Hiroshima: personal accounts of how Hiroshima people experienced the bombing

.. In other printed material

- What information is there for example in magazines, school history books, or Encyclopaedias?

∴ In films

- In which country was the film produced? What perspective was chosen?
- How are Japanese and American people portrayed? Who do you identify with?
- How is the process of justification laid out in the film?
Example: Hiroshima docu-drama, 2002 prod~ by Hallmark Entertainment

Student 8

1- Ejercicio de Analysis: Hiroshima

2- Actividad en la Web.

Name of source

- Name of the internet source? goggle
- Web address of the source?
<http://archivo.greenpeace.org/desarme/hirosima.atm>
- Who is behind the source? (A newspaper, a television Station...) Una asociación de greenpeace

Headline of article

- What is the headline of the article? Hiroshima y Nagasaki ¡Nunca más!

Content of article

- What is the article about? El seis de agosto de 1945 Estados Unidos lanzó una bomba sobre Hiroshima (Japón)

- What is the main point? El sesenta aniversario de la bomba de Hiroshima

Justification of the bombing

- Is there a justification given why the bomb has been dropped? If yes, what?

Sí, porque Estados Unidos quería el poder

National perspective

- Which countries are mentioned in the article? Japón y Estados Unidos
- How are the countries portrayed? Japón víctima y Estados Unidos el poder
- What perspective, if any, are you aware of in your own country? Ninguna

3- Additional options for going further.

..On the internet

- What information can you find when you search for `Hiroshima'? Muchas páginas sobre la II Guerra Mundial de Hiroshima

- What images can you find with search using e.g. google image?

.. In newspapers (on 6th August)

- In which section of the newspaper does the Hiroshima article appear?

- How long is the article? What images are shown?

.. In photographic books

- What images are shown?
- Which people are presented? What nationality are they? Example: Donald M. Goldstein et al, 1995: Rain of Ruin: Photographic illustration of the planning and execution of the Hiroshima bombing

.. In biographical books

- What kind of stories is based around the bombing? How do personal accounts differ from a more general documentation? Example: John Hersey, 1946: Hiroshima: personal accounts of how Hiroshima people experienced the bombing

.. In other printed material

- What information is there for example in magazines, school history books, or Encyclopaedias?

∴ In films

- In which country was the film produced? What perspective was chosen
- How are Japanese and American people portrayed? Who do you identify with
- How is the process of justification laid out in the film?
Example: Hiroshima docu-drama, 2002 prod~ by Hallmark Entertainment

